. None for the parties.

2. In this appeal, no vakalatnamam has been filed on behalf of the appellant. Consequently, earlier Bench vide its order dated 14.3.2002 had directed notice to be issued to the advocate who had appeared on behalf of said appellant either to file appearance or to take discharge. In spite of notice, no steps are taken either to file power or to take discharge.

2. In this view of the matter, office is directed to delete the name of concerned advocate from the docket and process the case treating the respondent as served but unrepresented.
